UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ANTHONY C. HILL,

Case No. 23-CV-06558-PHK

Plaintiff,

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE REGARDING EXPERT IDENTIFICATION

vs.

WORKDAY, INC.,

Defendant.

Pursuant to the Court's directive at the November 4, 2025 hearing, Plaintiff Anthony C. Hill respectfully submits this Notice identifying his expert witness and disclosing an additional potential expert consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(2)(A).

1. Professor Vaughn Rasberry

Plaintiff has retained Professor Vaughn Rasberry, Associate Professor of English and Associate Professor of African and African American Studies at Stanford University. Professor Rasberry earned his Ph.D. in English Language and Literature and M.A. in Humanities from the University of Chicago, and his B.A. in English from Howard University. He is affiliated with

1 Stanford's Center for Comparative Studies in Race and Ethnicity, the Program in Modern
2 Thought and Literature, and the American Studies Program.

3 Professor Rasberry's scholarship examines African American and African Diaspora
4 literature, twentieth-century American fiction, postcolonial theory, and philosophical theories of 5 modernity. His book Race and the Totalitarian Century: Geopolitics in the Black Literary 6 Imagination (Harvard University Press, 2016) received both the Ralph Bunche Award from the 7 American Political Science Association and the American Book Award in 2017. He has also 8 published in American Literary History, Novel: A Forum on Fiction, and multiple edited
9 volumes on race, culture, and modern politics.
10

11 At Stanford, Professor Rasberry teaches courses on African American literature, 12 American culture and the Cold War, postcolonial theory, and race and modernity, and has 13 mentored undergraduate and doctoral students across disciplines. His expertise in how race, 14 cultural institutions, and ethics intersect positions him to assist the Court in understanding the 15 organizational and social-justice dimensions relevant to Plaintiff's claims. A copy of his 16 curriculum vitae is attached as Exhibit A.
17
18

19 2. Professor Ralph Richard ("Rick") Banks

20 Plaintiff is also in discussions with Professor Ralph Richard Banks, the Jackson Eli 21 Reynolds Professor of Law and Faculty Director of the Stanford Center for Racial Justice at 22 Stanford Law School, who may serve as a supplemental or substitute expert should his 23 availability permit. Professor Banks has served on the Stanford Law School faculty since 1998
24 and holds a courtesy appointment as Professor of Education at Stanford University. He has also

28

1 taught at Harvard Law School (where he will return in 2026 as the Daniel P. S. Paul Visiting
2 Professor of Constitutional Law) and the University of Virginia School of Law.

3 Professor Banks's research and teaching span constitutional law, employment
4 discrimination, equal protection, family law, and racial justice. He is co-author of Family Law in
5 a Changing America (West 2021, 2d ed.) and Racial Justice and Law: Cases and Materials
6 (Foundation Press 2016, 2d ed. forthcoming). He is also the author of Is Marriage for White
7 People? How the African American Marriage Decline Affects Everyone (Dutton 2011), a widely
8 reviewed interdisciplinary work praised by The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, and 9 The Wall Street Journal.

11 A Rockefeller Foundation Bellagio Center Fellow (2022), Professor Banks has published
12 in leading law reviews such as the California Law Review, Stanford Law Review, UCLA Law
13 Review, Cornell Law Review, and Yale Law Journal Forum, and has written for national outlets
14 including The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, and The 15 Atlantic. He has appeared on CNN, ABC News/Nightline, NPR, and Fox News, and lectures
16 widely on issues of racial equity, organizational integrity, and institutional reform. Should his 17 availability permit, Plaintiff anticipates that Professor Banks's expertise will assist the trier of 18 fact in understanding the systemic and cultural contexts underlying Plaintiff's claims. His 19 curriculum vitae is attached as Exhibit B.
20

23 This Notice is filed in compliance with the Court's directive that Plaintiff identify any 24 expert by November 7, 2025, and to preserve Plaintiff's ability to submit expert reports
25 consistent with Rule 26(a)(2) and the Scheduling Order. Plaintiff will supplement this disclosure
26 as necessary pursuant to Rule 26(e).
27
28

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Anthony C. Hill
